Veterans Service Organizations

There are a number of national organizations that provide assistance with finding, applying for, receiving and maintaining veterans benefits. These Veterans Service Organizations (VSO's) have offices located on the 12th floor of the Patrick V. McNamara Federal Building in Detroit, which is where the VA Regional Office is located.

Additionally, Oakland County and Macomb County each have their own Veterans Services Departments. These departments provide the same services as the national organizations, but closer to home. In addition to federal benefits provided through the VA, they can also assist with any veterans benefits provided by state and local government agencies. The offices are located at:
